

DEZENT TE DARK

Tailor-made ecstasy

The new alloy wheel DEZENT TE dark

Modern SUVs do no longer have much to do with the classic, conventional, cubic 4x4s with skirting protection, but they are still characterised by visual size and assertive looks. Thus, an alloy wheel for this segment should always be in line with the pertinent design – just like the new DEZENT TE dark. Its powerful geometry and sportily aggressive matt-black finish makes it perfect for modern SUVs like a Porsche Cayenne, the very popular BMW X models (X1, X3, X5) or a Hyundai Santa Fe. The 17 or 18 inch DEZENT TE dark does also suit vans like VW T5. It is perfect for all vehicles that are supposed to show sportiness and character. The new DEZENT TE dark is most suitable for use in wintertime. After
